| Defendant. |) | |

The United States Attorney and defendants George Wellington Drexler and Terry Joseph Drexler agree to the following disposition of the charges pending against George Wellington Drexler and Terry Joseph Drexler and others presently charged in the indictment:

1. George Wellington Drexler and Terry Joseph Drexler each agree to enter a guilty plea to a single count of violating 18 U.S.C. § 1952;

2. Pursuant to Rule 11(e)(1)(C) the parties agree on the following:

a. The court may impose such sentence as it deems appropriate within the statutory maximum.

b. In the event that the court imposes a jail or prison commitment, the judgment shall include provision that:

(1) The defendant(s) shall be allowed to self-surrender at such place and on such date after June 1, 1983, as the United States Probation Office directs;

(2) A recommendation for confinement at a Bureau of Prisons camp facility;

(3) A recommendation that the Parole Commission not exceed the "very high" severity guidelines of the Commission.

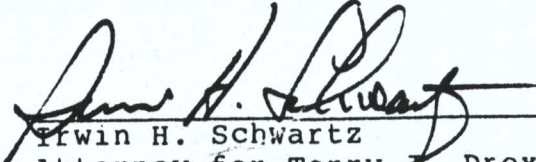

3. The government stipulates and agrees that the provable loss of Weyerhaeuser in this case does not exceed $500,000.00.

4. In consideration of the defendants' guilty pleas, the government has agreed to a disposition agreement with defendant David Drexler and to dismiss the charges against defendants Thomas Drexler, George Boisvert and Roslyn Wieneke Drexler and not to bring charges against Linda Drexler.

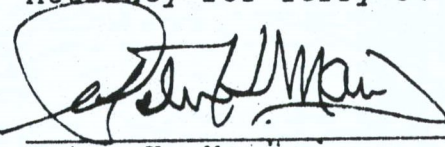

5. This agreement is in disposition of all federal criminal charges arising from the defendants George Wellington Drexler and Terry Joseph Drexler's businesses, and in further consideration of the defendants' guilty pleas, the government agrees there will be no additional federal charges filed based on events which occurred on or before November 24, 1982, in connection with those businesses.

DATED this 10th day of December, 1982.
